

---

Q. What vinyl color looks better on a car window out of black and white?

A.

White does look better on car windows. Especially cars with tinted windows. The contrast increases and creates more defined line around the image. Of course there are other colors besides black and white which also look very good. Check out the images we have on our site of vehicles and other objects that have vinyl.